

Teacher Performance Evaluation by Students

C. Lim

Evaluation period: Pilot Q1 2026 | Report date: 2026-09-08 | Evaluators: 15

Final evaluation score

4.04 / 5.00

What strategies and practices did you appreciate the most about your teacher?

Students most often appreciated student support (53%) · clear explanations · teaching strategies. The recurring positive themes were student support (53%) · clear explanations · teaching strategies. These comments identify the teaching practices students valued most.

What are some constructive suggestions you can give to help them handle students or teach better?

Students suggested attention to feedback & grading (60%) · clear explanations · student support · pacing & workload · teaching strategies. The recurring improvement themes were feedback & grading (60%) · clear explanations · student support · pacing & workload · teaching strategies. These suggestions identify areas for continued teaching development.

Overall how was your learning experience with your teacher?

Students described their learning experience through student support (60%) · learning materials · clear explanations · timeliness. The recurring experience themes were student support (60%) · learning materials · clear explanations · timeliness. Overall, the feedback reflects student support (60%) · learning materials · clear explanations · timeliness.

This report summarizes the teacher's aggregated student feedback for confidential faculty review. Student identities, section-level detail, and raw response snippets are intentionally excluded.